

Undergraduate Math Club
Fall 2006
2nd floor Nesbitt Common Room
September 14, 4:10-5:00pm
(free pizza and pop, as always)

Professor Stephen DeBacker

Abstract

The above picture has produced some interesting comments from my family members; everything from “I don’t get it, what is a prime?” to “How are the prime numbers spaced?” We shall address these comments and consider some of the questions about primes people have tried to answer over the centuries.