

Michigan Math Club

Undergraduate Mathematics Colloquium
Thursday at 4pm in 1360 East Hall

Mysteries of the Equilateral Triangle

Brian McCartin

Kettering University

Abstract for 29 Mar. 2012

In this talk, I will present a survey of the history and mathematical properties of the equilateral triangle. This will include practical applications as well as mathematical recreations involving equilateral triangles. I will conclude with a pictorial panorama of equilateral triangles arising in both natural and artificial contexts.

